BANGALORE CITY MUNICIPALITY.

Notice dated 8th January 1909.

Under Section 49 of the Mysore Municipal Regulation, VII of 1906, the following rules, approved by Government in their Proceedings No. 5057-8—Ml. 569-06-5, dated the 28th November 1908, are hereby published for general information.

N. SUBBA RAO,
For Presdt., Munl. Council, Bangalore City.

Rules regulating the conduct of business and proceedings at the Meetings of the City Municipal Council.

Meetings where to be held.—The meetings of the Municipal Councillors shall, except for reasons to be specified in the notice convening the meeting, be held at the Municipal Office. The Ordinary General Meetings shall be held on the third Thursday of every month at 8 A.M., or on such date and at such time as may seem expedient to the President.

2. (a) Business to be conducted if a quorum be present at the hour fixed for meeting.—At the hour fixed for a meeting of the Councillors, if a quorum be present, the business of the meeting may at once commence, and, if neither the President nor the Vice-President be present, the Councillors may proceed at once to choose a Presiding Councillor under Section 26 (5). If the President or the Vice-President arrives after a Presiding Councillor has been chosen by the Councillors, the Presiding Councillor shall leave the chair and the President or Vice-President shall preside.

(b) Absence of quorum at hour fixed for meeting.—If at the hour fixed for the meeting a quorum be not present, the presiding authority shall allow 30 minutes to elapse before he adjourns the meeting and if 30 minutes from the hour fixed for the meeting elapse without the assembling of a quorum, the meeting shall stand adjourned to that day week at the same time and place.

(c) Absence of quorum after commencement of business.—If after the commencement of business the presiding authority notices that a quorum is not present, or if any Councillor calls the attention of the presiding authority to the fact that a quorum is not present, and presiding authority shall immediately suspend business, and shall count the number of Councillors present, and if that number be insufficient to form a quorum, the Presiding Authority shall adjourn the meeting.

3. Amendment of minutes.—If any Councillor present, objects to the minutes as having been incorrectly or incompletely recorded, the presiding authority shall, after taking the sense of the meeting, make such amendments as he thinks proper, and the amended minutes shall then be confirmed and signed by the presiding authority.

4. Order to be observed.—A Councillor wishing to speak shall rise in his place. The Councillor who first rises to speak has the right to be heard. In cases of doubt the presiding authority shall decide who is entitled to speak. No interruption to the speech of a Councillor shall be permitted, except that the presiding authority may call the Councillor to order and any other Councillor may rise and request the presiding authority to call the speaker to order or to notice that a quorum is not present.

4. (a) All questions from one Councillor to another relating to the business of the meeting shall be put through the presiding authority.

5. Order.—The presiding authority shall preserve order and all points of order shall be summarily decided by him, no discussion thereon being allowed, unless he shall think fit to take the opinion of the Councillors present. The presiding authority may adjourn any meeting that refuses to obey his ruling on a point of order.

5. (a) Councillor called to order to resume his seat.—A Councillor called to order by the presiding authority shall resume his seat till the decision of the point of order raised. Provided that the presiding authority may allow the member to speak on the point of order raised. If any Councillor desires to dispute the decision of the presiding authority he may bring forward a proposition at the following meeting.

6. Priority may be given to any item of business.—The order in which any business that may be transacted or any proposition that may be discussed at any meeting shall be brought forward at such meeting, shall be determined by the presiding authority, who in case it is proposed by any member to give priority to any particular item of such business, or to any particular proposition, shall put the proposal to the meeting and be guided by the majority of votes given for or against the proposal.

7. Items of business may be grouped.—If more than one meeting be held the same day, it shall be competent to the presiding authority with the consent of the majority of Councillors present, to submit for consideration as one subject, for disposal by one meeting, any two or more items of business relating to the same subject although (some of such items) shall appear on the agenda papers of another and distinct meeting to be held on the same day.

8. A proposition may be divided.—The presiding authority shall have the power to divide into two or more distinct propositions any proposition or amendment which in his opinion is so complicated as to be likely to lead to confusion or inconvenience by being debated on as one proposition.

A proposition when divided need not be moved and seconded more than once.—But when by virtue of this rule, a proposition or amendment is divided, it shall not be necessary, unless the presiding authority decide to the contrary, for the second and following portions of such proposition or amendment to be again separately moved and seconded. But the propositions so divided shall be put to the vote by the presiding authority one after the other.

9. Motion to be relevant to subject before meeting.—Each Councillor rising to speak shall direct his speech to the question before the meeting or an amendment which he is himself about to propose or to a point of order always addressing the presiding authority from his place. A Councillor having spoken to a proposition or amendment is not at liberty to speak again to such proposition or amendment.

Provided that the mover of a proposition or amendment shall have a right of reply, after the presiding authority has ascertained that no other Councillor entitled to speak, desires to speak.

Provided also, that any Councillor may second a proposition or amendment by saying "I second the proposition" or "amendment" and may reserve his right to speak later.

Provided also that a Councillor who wishes to explain any misconception of expressions used by him may do so with the permission of the presiding authority.

10. Routine resolutions be put to meeting without being moved or seconded.—Routine resolutions, such as recording periodical statements or confirming the proceedings of a Committee, may be put to the meeting by the presiding authority without their having been moved or seconded. Propositions regarding the choice of a Presiding Councillor, adjournments and the like must be seconded, but need not be in writing.

Every other proposition and amendment to be in writing and to be seconded.—Except as provided above, every proposition and every amendment must be in writing and must be seconded.

Resolutions of Committees to be moved and seconded by members.—When a resolution of the managing or other Committee is submitted to the general meeting for adoption, its adoption should ordinarily be moved and seconded by members of the Committee.

11. Amendments.—After the proposition has been moved and seconded, any Councillor may propose an amendment thereto.

Provided that no Councillor shall be at liberty to propose more than one amendment to any proposition, except when such proposition is for the passing of a budget or of a set of general rules, or is otherwise of such a nature as to require the making of many amendments to different parts of it.

12. Presiding authority to read the proposition to the meeting.—The proposer of any amendment shall state it or hand it in writing to the presiding authority at any time before he resumes his seat. When the mover of a proposition or amendment has resumed his seat, the presiding authority shall read the proposition or amendment to the meeting and ask if any Councillor seconds it, and until the proposition or amendment is seconded, the presiding authority shall not permit any discussion on the question. If no Councillor seconds the proposition or amendment, the presiding authority shall declare that the proposition or amendment is lost.

13. Speeches should not be read.—A Councillor shall not read his speech, but may refresh his memory from notes and may, with the consent of the presiding authority, read passages from books or documents cited in behalf of his argument.

14. Any Councillor may move proposition of which notice has been given if original mover is absent or unwilling.—If a Councillor has given due notice to move a proposition, and if that Councillor be not present at the meeting or shall have ceased to be a Councillor before the meeting or be unwilling to move the proposition of which he has given notice, any Councillor present at the meeting may, with the consent of the presiding authority, move the proposition of which notice has been given.

15. Amendments to omit words, etc., from original propositions to be clear and relevant and not mere negatives of previous propositions.—An amendment shall usually be in the form of a proposal to omit words from the original proposition, to insert words therein, or to add words thereto. Every amendment must be relevant to the proposition it is proposed to amend and must be framed so as to form therewith and intelligible and consistent sentence. An amendment which is the direct negative of the proposition shall not be allowed.

16. Amendment may be sent to President beforehand in writing.—A Councillor who intends to propose an amendment to a proposition is at liberty to send or deliver at any time beforehand to the President or the presiding authority, his proposed amendment in writing.

17. Order to observe when there are more amendments than one.—After a proposition has been proposed and seconded the proposed amendments which the President or the presiding authority has received shall be arranged in the order in which, if agreed to, each would stand in the amended proposition, and if any more proposed amendments are stated or handed to the presiding authority, they shall be inserted in that order and the presiding authority shall call upon the proposers of amendments in that order to move their amendments.

18. Each amendment to be decided before next is entered upon.—Each amendment must be decided before the next amendment is entered upon, but after any amendment has been proposed and seconded, any Councillor may move that the amendment be amended by the omission, insertion or addition of certain words, and the presiding authority shall thereupon ask if any other Councillor seconds the proposal and if seconded the proposal to amend the amendment shall then become the question before the meeting.

19. No amendment to words already resolved be made.—No amendment may be made to words which, it has already been resolved, shall stand part of, or be added to, the original proposition or amendment except by addition of other words.

20. Amendment once negatived not to be proposed.—No amendment may be proposed which is the same, in substance, as a proposition or amendment which has been negatived during that meeting.

21. Proposition or amendment not to be withdrawn.—A proposition or amendment which has been moved and seconded cannot be withdrawn without the permission of the meeting.

22. Presiding authority to move propositions without quitting chair.—The presiding authority may move and second propositions or amendments, speak and vote without vacating the chair.

23. Voting.—When a question is put to the vote, the presiding authority shall call for a show of hands, and the presiding authority or a Councillor at his request, shall count the hands shown for and against and declare the result. If any Councillor challenge the correctness of the numbers thus declared the hands shall be counted a second time. Provided that if any two Councillors request a poll, the presiding authority shall call the roll of the Councillors and record on the minutes of the meeting the names of the Councillors voting for and against.

The presiding authority unless he refrains from voting should give his vote before declaring the number of votes for and against a question, and then in case of an equality of votes, he should give his casting vote.

24. No member obliged to vote.—A Councillor who is present at a meeting may refrain from voting. If the question before the meeting be the confirmation of a report or proceedings of a Committee, the members of that Committee may vote. If the conduct of a Councillor be in question, that Councillor may vote.

25. Result of equality of votes.—When there is an equality of votes and the presiding authority refrains from giving his casting vote, the proposition shall be held to be neither passed nor rejected and may be brought forward at any subsequent meeting.

26. Budget discussion.—When a budget or reappropriation statement is laid before a General meeting, the procedure shall be as follows :—

(1) The presiding authority shall read each item of the abstracts of receipts and expenditure and shall without any mover or seconder, put to the meeting the question "that this item stand part of the budget or reappropriation statement."

(2) If any Councillor propose to reduce or increase or strike off the item and the proposal be seconded, such proposal shall be treated as an amendment and shall become the question before the meeting.

27. Councillors may resolve into Committee at General meeting.—At a meeting the Councillors may resolve themselves into a Committee to consider any subject which is before the meeting. In such a Committee, a proposition need not be seconded and a Councillor may speak more than once. The decision of the Committee shall be reported to that meeting or to a subsequent meeting for confirmation.

28. Rough minutes of proceedings to be taken down in bound volume.—The rough minutes of all proceedings of meetings must be taken down in a bound volume at the time of discussion.

29. Proposal to adjourn or postpone.—A proposal to adjourn a meeting or to postpone the consideration of a question shall take precedence of any other proposition before the meeting.

30. Meetings ordinarily open to the public.—All meetings shall be open to the public, provided that the public may be required to withdraw, if it should be deemed necessary by the presiding authority that any enquiry or deliberation pending before the Municipal Council should be held in private. The presiding authority may at any time cause any person to be removed who interrupts the proceedings.
